CSS 16 COLUMN

by Captain W. E. Sims

Rejoice in the opportunity to celebrate this glorious holiday period with all of its meaning and significance for our lives.

We have so much to be thankful for.

Our effort and dedication contribute directly to peace. Ours is a positive action, not just a protest or a belief. Each of us can take great satisfaction in the knowledge that he is working for "Peace On Earth."

Major conflicts between powerful nations have been prevented. Yet, there is still much to be done. Great faith and dedication are still needed. We are so fortunate to see the direct results of our individual efforts. So many in our society are not so fortunate. They do not have such a clear cut direct involvement.

The Christmas Holiday season is so appropriate for each individual to stop and take inventory of himself.

The unit of society is the individual. The character and personality of society is the result of the combination of many individuals. The most important element of society is clearly a single individual.

This is the Christmas message. The role and importance of a single individual. "Peace On Earth", achieved by the combined effort of many individuals. Man created in the image of Christ is the Hope of the World.

I extend my greetings to each and every one of you, your families, children, and friends for a happy Christmas. I am most thankful for the contribution and sacrifice you made for the sake of Peace. May God bestow his blessings on all of you.

"Peace On Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

COMMAND COLUMN

by

Captain H. J. Trueblood

This special Holiday Season edition of our ship's paper is dedicated to the men of CANOPUS as well as those military men around the world who are separated from their loved ones during this season of traditional family gatherings. Be assured that your hard work, dedication and sacrifice are truly appreciated. Your contribution to the defense of our nation will hopefully hurry the day when, "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men", will be a reality and we can be with our friends at home.

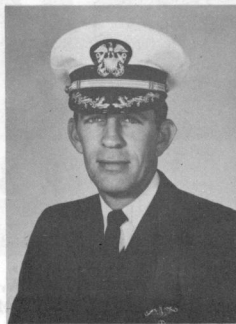

To the families back home, we wish you a Happy and Merry Holiday Season. Our thoughts are with you today. We hope that the pictures and articles herein will shorten the miles between us.

DRIVE SAFELY THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

Cross Currents

BY CHAPLAIN ECKLES, USN

O Lord, sometimes when Christmas comes we are tempted to say, "I'll be glad when it's over!" Why do we make a season of joy so hard for ourselves? This year, Lord, help us to make a little simpler. We need to spend less money on each other and more time with each other. Teach us what is really valuable. This year we would like to learn the real meaning of it all. If we already know, make us more aware. If we don't know, teach us.

Bring into the lives of the lonely someone who can fill the empty places. A very special letter or package - maybe some pictures too. You know best. My happy memories of other Christmases cheer us. Thank you for those who care, even though they may be far away. They are never really far away because we take them with us. Thank you for those who open their homes and their hearts and give a sailor a real family Christmas.

Teach us, Lord, that we are most likely to find happiness where we are. Teach us how to give. You have given so much. Christmas comes because You came and gave the world new hope. May we learn that happiness goes sour unless we give it away.

Thank you for this Christmas, Lord. We know that whether we are at home or away, we can spend it with You.

O Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas
angels,
The great glad tidings
tell;
O come to us, abide with us
Our Lord Emmanuel.

--- Amen
